Dear Russ:

I will be happy to see you if you will call my secretary in a few days. Meantime, we will dig out the Len O'Connor script and refresh my recollection.

It was a fascinating news lead and good enough, so that even without a direct link to the President's assassination, it made a good local story. My recollection is that the FBI was active in the case only at U.S. Secret Service request and that the man was cleared of a possible tie-up.

One point we did not clear up, if my recollection is correct, was whether or not he might have served with Oswald in the Marines overseas.

At any rate, I will be glad to talk with you.

Sincerely,

Bill Corley
